PROPERTY DETAILS

Boy, have I got a good one for your today! Located in the quiet, country Indrio area of Fort Pierce where most lots are 1+ acres. This 1939 SF 3/2/2 home sits on 1.15 acres of private land. Metal roof. Fenced yard. Storage shed for whatever you dont' want to keep in the garage. There's also a pump house to protect the well and pool equipment. Underground 250-gallon propane tank servicing the gas stove, dryer, and there's a tankless water heater too! Don't like gas in the kitchen? That's okay because it's also wired to change back to electric if you prefer. Propane lines also have been run to the back patio for a future outdoor kitchen. There's a dirt road leading to it, but it is very well maintained, so don't let that scare you. Built in 2006, this is a must-see saltwater POOL home with amazing outdoor space for entertaining. So much potential for the land here. The kitchen is open to the living area and den for those nights of family cooking and chilling together. Tile throughout living areas. The master bath has separate shower and a jetted garden tub for the ultimate relaxation. Country living at it's best. Call and schedule your showing today!
